

European Institute of Social Services

The European Institute of Social Services (EISS) is based at Kent University at Canterbury and is part of the School of Social Policy, Sociology and Social Research.

EISS has been recognised as a leading champion for social change since 1991. The highly skilled and knowledgeable EISS team works closely with a wide range of health and social care organisations within the UK and elsewhere in Europe. EISS has a proven success record based on the quality and results of services provided.

Aims:

- ★ To access European funding to support innovative practice development
- ★ To research and share best practice throughout Europe
- ★ To influence Social Policy at local, regional, national and international levels
- ★ To develop the skills and knowledge of service providers and practitioners

Principles:

- ★ Integrity – EISS is a non-profit organisation committed to social welfare reform
- ★ Innovation – EISS supports the development and delivery of innovative and effective services to promote social change
- ★ Flexibility – EISS responds to the individual needs of our clients

EISS is based at the University of Kent at Canterbury
